By signing below I attest the information provided on this application is true to the best of my knowledge. I also agree to abide by all of the expectations and policies of Maranatha Bible Church (MBC) and Maranatha Day Camp (DC), including the staff guidelines and the position on gender and sexuality located in the MBC Constitution (please ask if you'd like to review this information). I understand that my participation as a volunteer at DC is "at will" and may be discontinued at any time at the request of the MBC elders and/or Camp Director. I understand that I may be asked to participate in a personal interview to further discover my ability to minister at DC. I also give permission to MBC to conduct a background check. I understand that MBC is not responsible for electronic devices and the use of such devices (including cell phones) is prohibited during camp hours. Finally, I agree that MBC and DC are not liable for any injuries I might sustain while serving as a volunteer staff member.
