

BAPTISM OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

INTRODUCTION

ORDO SALUTIS

2

- Normally, a section on the baptism and filling of the Holy Spirit is not included in the doctrine of salvation portions of systematic theology books, nor is it included in the typical ordo salutis
- However, it is an event that occurs in the life of a believer at the same moment as regeneration, conversion, justification, and adoption
- All believers are immersed into Christ at the moment of conversion, baptized by Christ with his Holy Spirit
- The NT clearly teaches that all believers receive the Holy Spirit in his fullness at the moment of salvation
- At salvation, all believers not only become full members of Christ's body, the church, but the Holy Spirit is placed within each of them

Romans 6:3-4 ~ Or do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death? 4 Therefore we have been buried with Him through baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

Romans 8:5-9, 11, 14, 16 ~ For those who are according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. 6 For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace, 7 because the mind set on the flesh is hostile toward God; for it does not subject itself to the law of God, for it is not even able to do so, 8 and those who are in the flesh cannot please God. 9 However, you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him...11 But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you....14 For all who are being led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God...16 The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God

Ephesians 2:18 ~ for through Him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father.

Colossians 2:12 ~ having been buried with Him in baptism, in which you were also raised up with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead.

- “Spirit baptism occurs only once, at the moment of salvation, and should not be sought as a secondary, postconversion experience. That singular Spirit baptism occurs at conversion, when the believer is born again and placed into the sphere of the Spirit’s sanctifying power and indwelling presence.”³
- Additionally, it is a doctrine that has been largely misunderstood by Pentecostal, Assembly of God, and Charismatic churches...hence the need to have a right understanding of this vital doctrine
- Usually, the charismatic Christian considers the baptism of the Holy Spirit as a second work of grace, distinct from and subsequent to regeneration and conversion
- They believe that it is a work of the Holy Spirit that is available to all Christians but not appropriated by all Christians
- They teach a second blessing of grace, namely that Christians receive the Holy Spirit only in a limited sense at salvation and then need to seek the baptism of the Spirit in order to move to a higher level of spiritual life
- This is known as the charismatic doctrine of subsequence, namely that believers receive the Holy Spirit subsequent to salvation
- The question, “Have you received the baptism of the Holy Spirit?” highlights this doctrine
- Such a question suggests that there are two groups of Christians, those who have had this experience of “baptism in the Holy Spirit” and those who have not...creating a two-class Christianity...a “we-they” divide
- They also associate speaking in tongues as a necessary sign or initial physical manifestation of this “baptism”
- They hold that this subsequent working of grace is accompanied by speaking in tongues and results in new spiritual motivation and power
- Pentecostals believe that the Spirit has baptized every believer into Christ, but that Christ has not baptized every believer into the Spirit
- The most important characteristics of the Pentecostal understanding of the baptism in the Holy Spirit are:
 1. The event is usually distinct from and subsequent to the new birth
 2. It is evidenced initially by the sign of speaking in other tongues
 3. This baptism must be earnestly sought
- They say that Jesus’ disciples were believers long before the Holy Spirit was given on Pentecost, yet they did not receive the Holy Spirit until after their conversion
- They see a pattern in the book of Acts where people are first born again and then are later baptized in the Holy Spirit
- This biblical pattern, which includes a time gap between conversion and baptism of the Spirit, is then seen as normative for all ages

³ John MacArthur and Richard Mayhue, eds., Biblical Doctrine: A Systematic Summary of Bible Truth (Wheaton, IL: Crossway, 2017), 783.

The Example of Jesus' Disciples

Acts 1:5 ~ for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.

Acts 1:8 ~ but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth.”

Acts 2:4 ~ And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them utterance.

- The assumption is that, although the disciples were born again long before Pentecost, at Pentecost they received a baptism with the Holy Spirit that was subsequent to conversion and resulted in great empowering for ministry as well as speaking in tongues

The Example of the Samaritan Converts

Acts 8:12-17 ~ But when they believed Philip preaching the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were being baptized, men and women alike. Even Simon himself believed; and after being baptized, he continued on with Philip, and as he observed signs and great miracles taking place, he was constantly amazed. Now when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit. For He had not yet fallen upon any of them; they had simply been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they began laying their hands on them, and they were receiving the Holy Spirit.

- The assumption is that these Samaritans were first born again and then later baptized in the Holy Spirit

The Example of Cornelius' Household

Acts 10:1-2, 45-47 ~ Now there was a man at Caesarea named Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian cohort, a devout man and one who feared God with all his household, and gave many alms to the Jewish people and prayed to God continually...All the circumcised believers who came with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles also. For they were hearing them speaking with tongues and exalting God. Then Peter answered, “Surely no one can refuse the water for these to be baptized who have received the Holy Spirit just as we did, can he?”

- The assumption is that Cornelius and his family were God-fearers first but then were later baptized in the Holy Spirit

⁴ Wayne Grudem, Systematic Theology, 776.

The Example of John's Disciples

Acts 19:1, 6 ~ It happened that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the upper country and came to Ephesus, and found some disciples...⁶ And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking with tongues and prophesying.

- The assumption is that John's disciples were already believers, but later received the Holy Spirit
- Advocates of the "second blessing of the Holy Spirit" suggest that believers today should follow the example of the disciples in asking for and seeking the baptism of the Spirit
- "All of these examples...are cited by Pentecostals in order to show that a 'baptism in the Holy Spirit' subsequent to conversion was a very common occurrence for New Testament Christians. Therefore, they reason, if it was common for Christians in Acts to have this second experience sometime after conversion, should it not be common for us today as well?"⁵

How to Receive the Baptism of the Holy Spirit

Now that you are a Christian, you can ask for the baptism of the Holy Spirit. John the Baptist said, "I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit" (Mark 1:8). Jesus is the One who baptizes us with the Holy Spirit, so let's ask Him to do that right now. Keep in mind this important point, though. We are asking Jesus for the promised gift of the power of the Holy Spirit for living the victorious life and for doing the things that God calls us to do for the glory of Jesus. We are not seeking tongues nor any other manifestation! Speaking in tongues is the result of receiving the power of the Holy Spirit, it is not the goal.

Just as you received salvation by faith, you also receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit by faith. When you ask Jesus to do this for you, believe in faith that you have received it:

"Lord Jesus, You said in Luke 11:13 that as a child of God I can ask for the gift of the Holy Spirit. You also said in Acts 1:4-8 that I will receive power when I am baptized with the Holy Spirit. So Lord, I am asking in Your Name, the Name of Jesus, for You to baptize me in the Holy Spirit right now, exactly like on the day of Pentecost. I might not feel any different, but I receive the gift of the power of the Holy Spirit right now, by my faith. Thank You, Lord! Amen."

Now that you have received the baptism of the Holy Spirit by faith (just as you received salvation by faith), let's take a look at some things that the Bible says about speaking in tongues. Notice that the Bible tells us to offer all of the parts of our body to God as instruments of righteousness:

Assuming that you have now been baptized with the Holy Spirit, you are now able to yield your tongue to Him to be used as an instrument of righteousness. The Bible calls this "praying in a tongue" (1 Corinthians 14:14) and "praying in the Spirit" (Ephesians 6:18).

In order to begin speaking in tongues for the first time it is usually helpful to praise God for a few moments in your native language so that your mind is in an attitude of worship. This often helps keep your mind from being too analytical as you begin speaking in tongues. Worship and love God out loud for a few moments from your heart, with a lot of feeling:

"Father, I love You! I praise You! I worship You! I love You with all of my heart!"

Now, in the same attitude of love and praise and worship, begin praising God some more but not in any language you know. Just begin making mixed-up syllable sounds that don't mean anything to you, trusting that as you do your part then the Holy Spirit will do His part. Give God lots of praise and love and worship from your heart, something like this:

"Ora ba cashay ha lamba sa dura hemene ro boso"

Some people will find it easy to speak in tongues for the first time, so if you are able to make a bunch of mixed-up syllable sounds, don't stop! Keep going for a minute or more so that your "prayer language" is flowing freely. Congratulations!

BIBLICAL UNDERSTANDING OF THE BAPTISM OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

- How do we explain these apparent “second blessings of the Holy Spirit” in Acts? → These events occurred in a period of transition between the Old Covenant and New Covenant
- Under the Old Covenant, the ministry of the Holy Spirit was limited primarily to granting special grace to individuals to accomplish a certain task on behalf of God...thus, only a select few believers were endowed by God with gifts for ministry

Exodus 35:30-31 ~ Then Moses said to the sons of Israel, “See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. 31 And He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding and in knowledge and in all craftsmanship

Numbers 11:17 (70 elders) ~ Then I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take of the Spirit who is upon you, and will put Him upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, so that you will not bear it all alone.

Judges 3:10 (Othniel) ~ The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel. When he went out to war, the LORD gave Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia into his hand, so that he prevailed over Cushan-rishathaim.

Judges 6:34 ~ So the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon; and he blew a trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called to follow him

Judges 11:29 ~ Now the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, so that he passed through Gilead and Manasseh; then he passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he went on to the sons of Ammon.

Judges 13:24-25 ~ Then the woman gave birth to a son and named him Samson; and the child grew up and the LORD blessed him. 25 And the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him in Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

1 Samuel 10:6, 10 (Saul) ~ “Then the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you mightily, and you shall prophesy with them and be changed into another man”...10 When they came to the hill there, behold, a group of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him mightily, so that he prophesied among them.

1 Samuel 16:13 ~ Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. And Samuel arose and went to Ramah.

Psalms 51:11 ~ Do not cast me away from Your presence And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.

- But that pattern changed at Pentecost...under the New Covenant, the ministry of the Holy Spirit becomes much greater...indwelling, sealing, and granting believers power to work for the Lord
- This is what the disciples experienced on Pentecost

Acts 1:8 ~ but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth.”

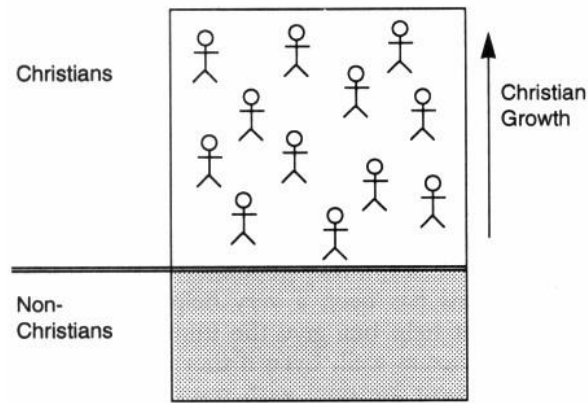

- On Pentecost, the disciples received the full new covenant empowering for ministry
- They received in indwelling of the HS which granted them the “power” for living the Christian life and for carrying out ministry
- This new covenant power gave the disciples more effectiveness in their ministry...greater power over sin... strength to resist Satan and his forces which would attack them...and the spiritual gifts they would need
- The disciples knew and trusted Christ and were saved, but were still Old Covenant believers...they had not received or experienced the Spirit’s permanent indwelling
- When the Holy Spirit came at Pentecost, a new order was established...from then on the HS came to every believer at the moment of faith and indwelt the believer in a permanent, abiding relationship

- The few instances where there seems to be a “second blessing” in Acts represent those OC believers who had yet to receive the Spirit...the subsequent episodes of HS baptism beyond the Day of Pentecost should be understood as an extension of Pentecost by which the whole body of Christ was gifted for ministry
- Acts is a transitional book and not everything that took place in Acts is normative for today
- “Acts reveals how a new epoch began – the church age, the era of the Holy Spirit. We Christians who live in that age receive the Spirit when we believe in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. The Spirit is a gift from God for every believer. That is taught again and again in the New Testament epistles. Yet nowhere do they substantiate the Pentecostal and charismatic doctrine of a second work of grace that is sought by the believer and evidenced by speaking in tongues.”⁶
- “The Day of Pentecost was certainly a remarkable time of transition in the whole history of redemption as recorded in Scripture. It was a remarkable day in the history of the world, because on that day the Holy Spirit began to function among God’s people with new covenant power. But this fact helps us understand what happened to the disciples at Pentecost. They received this remarkable new empowering from the Holy Spirit because they were living at the time of the transition between the old covenant work of the Holy Spirit and the new covenant work of the Holy Spirit. Though it was a ‘second experience’ of the Holy Spirit, coming as it did long after their conversion, it is not to be taken as a pattern for us, for we are not living at a time of transition in the work of the Holy Spirit. In their case, believers with an old covenant empowering from the Holy Spirit became believers with a new covenant empowering from the Holy Spirit. But we today do not first become believers with a weaker, old covenant work of the Holy Spirit in our hearts and wait until some later time to receive a new covenant work of the Holy Spirit. Rather, we are in the same position as those who became Christians in Corinth...It seems therefore that there are no New Testament texts that encourage us to seek for a second experience of ‘baptism in the Holy Spirit’ that comes after conversion.”⁷
- Also, the first believers did not think that the Samaritans, the God-fearers, and the Gentile disciples of John could be Christians
- So, the baptism of the HS (in Acts 8, 10, 19) served as confirmation of their membership in the church
- Since each of these groups experienced the baptism of the Holy Spirit in the same way that the Jews had at Pentecost, their inclusion in the church could not be denied
- “Thus, the event in Acts 8, for example, was a kind of a ‘Samaritan Pentecost,’ a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the people of Samaria, who were a mix race of Jewish and Gentile ancestry, so that it might be evident to all that the full new covenant blessings and power of the Holy Spirit had come to this group of people as well, and were not confined to Jews only.”⁸
- Furthermore, none of the above texts indicate that anyone was seeking or asking for the Holy Spirit
- The major objection to the Pentecostal understanding of baptism by the Holy Spirit is that the NT nowhere teaches a two-level or two-class Christianity
- Their position results in two classes of Christians: 1) those saved with a baptism of the Spirit; 2) those saved without the baptism of the Spirit
- This causes those “without the Spirit” to think they are of a lower class...i.e. incomplete without it which causes them to seek for the greater experience of being baptized in the Spirit and feeling as though they are not a complete Christian until they reach it
- It is better to understand that all Christians have been baptized in the Holy Spirit but not all Christians are at the same level of spiritual growth

Meaning of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit in the New Testament

- John the Baptist predicted that Jesus would baptize people in/with the Holy Spirit:

Mathew 3:11 ~ As for me, I baptize you with water for repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, and I am not fit to remove His sandals; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

Mark 1:8 ~ I baptized you with water; but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

Luke 3:16 ~ John answered and said to them all, “As for me, I baptize you with water; but One is coming who is mightier than I, and I am not fit to untie the thong of His sandals; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

John 1:33 ~ I did not recognize Him, but He who sent me to baptize in water said to me, ‘He upon whom you see the Spirit descending and remaining upon Him, this is the One who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.’

- These words by John the Baptist indicate that the Holy Spirit had not yet been given, but Christ would one day give the Holy Spirit to those who believe in him
- Jesus also promised to send the Holy Spirit...Christ is the baptizer and the Holy Spirit is the agent of baptism

John 7:39 ~ But this He spoke of the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were to receive; for the Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

John 14:26 ~ But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you.

John 15:26 ~ When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, that is the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify about Me,

John 16:7 ~ But I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you.

John 20:22 ~ And when He had said this, He breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.

- Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit but this didn’t happen until he had died and was resurrected
- Although the Holy Spirit has always existed, prior to this point, he had not been given to indwell believers
- The Holy Spirit couldn’t be given to believers until Christ returned to heaven, possibly for a couple reasons:

⁹ Ibid., 778.

1. The work of the HS is to apply the saving merits of Christ to the hearts and lives of believers (which hadn't happened yet)
2. The HS is a reward upon Christ's work (see Acts 2:33)

- Jesus and Peter both indicated that the giving of the HS occurred at Pentecost

Acts 1:5 ~ for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.”

Acts 11:16 ~ And I remembered the word of the Lord, how He used to say, ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’

- What John the Baptist referred to and what Jesus promised actually took place
- This is what Paul affirmed as well

1 Corinthians 12:13 ~ For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

- The baptism spoken of here is not water baptism...it refers to being immersed into the body of Christ (the church) by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit
- The word “baptize” (baptizo) means “to immerse, baptize, dip”...at the moment of salvation, believers are baptized with the Holy Spirit which gives new life and places them into the body of Christ
- Paul's point is that the Corinthians received the Holy Spirit and became members of the body of Christ when they became Christians
- Believers are immersed by Christ with the HS immediately upon conversion and thereby placed into unity with other believers in the body of Christ, the church
- There is only one baptism of the Holy Spirit...this is not something believers receive repeatedly...they receive it once when they are born again
- There cannot be any believer who has not been baptized by the HS
- “By this, the Son places all believers into the sphere of the Spirit's power and Person, into a new environment, a new atmosphere, a new relationship with others, and a new union with Jesus Christ...Paul's central point...is that baptism with the one Spirit makes the church one Body. If there were more than one Spirit baptism, there would be more than one church, and Paul's whole point here would be destroyed. He is using the doctrine of baptism with the Spirit to show the unity of all believers in the Body.”¹⁰
- There is no command or method for believers to seek or receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit since they do not need to ask for what they already have

Characteristics of the Baptism of the Spirit¹¹

It is Unique to the Church Age

- The baptism of the Holy Spirit did not occur in the Old Testament
- It is unique to the age which began when the church was founded at Pentecost (Acts 2)

¹⁰ John MacArthur, 1 Corinthians, 312.

¹¹ Adapted from Paul Enns, The Moody Handbook of Theology, 266-267.

It Includes All Believers in the Church Age

1 Corinthians 12:13 ~ For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Romans 6:3, 5 ~ Or do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death?...For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection,

Galatians 3:27-28 ~ For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

- Every true Christian is baptized by Christ with the Holy Spirit at salvation...there is no such thing as a Christian who has not been baptized with the Holy Spirit

It Brings Believers into Union with Other Believers in the Body of Christ

1 Corinthians 12:13 ~ For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

It Brings Believers into Union with Christ

Romans 6:3, 5 ~ Or do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death?...For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection,

- The amazing truth of the baptism of the Holy Spirit is that when we trust in Christ, we are completely immersed in the Spirit and completely indwelt by him
- God has given us everything we need...there is nothing more to put in us...he has put his very self into us!

Distinct from Indwelling, Sealing, and Filling

Indwelling

- The Holy Spirit comes to live inside all true believers at the moment of salvation permanently

John 14:16-17 ~ I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may be with you forever; that is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see Him or know Him, but you know Him because He abides with you and will be in you.

Romans 8:9 ~ However, you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him.

Sealing

- The Holy Spirit is given at the moment of salvation as a seal to the person who believes in Christ, thereby identifying the believer as belonging to God and signifying ownership and security

2 Corinthians 1:22 ~ who also sealed us and gave us the Spirit in our hearts as a pledge.

Ephesians 1:13 ~ In Him, you also, after listening to the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation—having also believed, you were sealed in Him with the Holy Spirit of promise,

Filling

- Whereas the baptism is a one-time event that occurs with all believers at the moment of salvation, the filling of the Holy Spirit is an event that can (and should) occur over and over again in a Christian's life
- Also, no command exists to be baptized with the Spirit but there are commands to be filled with the Spirit

Ephesians 5:18 ~ And do not get drunk with wine, for that is dissipation, but be filled with the Spirit,

- Literally, "be being filled" = continual present tense...The issue is control...who/what is controlling you?
- It is important to get the precise meaning of the word "filled" as Paul used it...when we think of filling, we usually picture a container into which something is poured or shoveled until it is full
- That is not what Paul had in mind here...Paul was not speaking of being filled up...he had in mind the idea of being filled through or permeated by the Holy Spirit's influence
- See the results of it in Ephesians 5:19-6:4 (this is how you know if you are filled with the Spirit)

Colossians 3:16 ~ Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

- A Spirit-filled Christian is one in whom the Word of Christ dwells

Galatians 5:16 ~ But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh.

- Being filled with the Spirit involves yielding to the Spirit in our daily walk
- We surrender our wills, our minds, our bodies, our time, our talents, our treasures to the control of the Spirit
- Some conditions that must be met in order to be filled with the Spirit: confession of sin...prayer... mind informed by God's Word
